

1,000 BOOKS BINGO

Have fun playing this game with your little one for the Summer Reading Program. June through July, every row completed earns a sticker. The whole sheet (15 activities) earns a book!

<h2>Talk</h2> Talking about what you're doing teaches your little one new words.	Tell a story without a book	Say "please" and "thank you"	Tell a family member or guardian you love them
<h2>Sing</h2> Singing slows down language so your child can hear individual sounds that make up words.	Sing to your pet (or stuffed animal)	Sing "B-I-N-G-O" with someone you love	Sing LOUD and soft
<h2>Read</h2> Reading books aloud is the single best way to prepare your child to learn to read.	Read with a flashlight	Look for words on a package of food	Read under a tree
<h2>Write</h2> Doing fingerplays like "Where is Thumbkin" strengthens little finger muscles.	Draw a picture for an elderly friend or relative	Point out the letters and words in a book	Use sidewalk chalk outside
<h2>Play</h2> Kids learn by playing and stretching their imagination.	Read to a stuffed animal	Share a toy with a playmate	Go to the library or park
